

CELEBRATE WORLD AIDS DAY WITH THE MALAYSIAN AIDS COUNCIL

KUALA LUMPUR, 30 DECEMBER 2012 - The World AIDS Day, celebrated on December 1 each year around the world, is one of the most recognized international health days and a key opportunity to raise awareness, commemorate those who have passed on and celebrate victories such as increased access to treatment and prevention services.

For this year's World AIDS Day celebration, the Malaysian AIDS Council (MAC) is mobilizing young people via the Red Ribbon Youth Club (RRYC), a youth-oriented advocacy initiative led by leading actor, Aaron Aziz.

The RRYC World AIDS Day Celebration will be officially launched by Aaron Aziz on December 1, 2012 at the Courtyard of the Berjaya Times Square, starting at 10 am to 12 pm. Following the launch, the celebration will run for two days (Dec 1 through Dec 2) and will feature ongoing exhibitions, stage performance, flash mobs and a hosts of other exciting activities that aims at raising awareness for HIV/AIDS, fights prejudice, improves education and raising funds for the cause.

Malaysian AIDS Council warmly invites everyone to join us in this deeply-meaningful celebration.

The RRYC World AIDS Day Celebration is held in partnership with The Medical Students Society of University Malaya, PT Foundation Sdn Bhd, Reckitt Benkiser (M) Sdn Bhd and MAC's other 49 partner organizations. For further information and inquiries, please do not hesitate to contact the MAC's Media & Communication team below. We believe your presence will give a deeper meaning for World AIDS Day this year.

For all your cooperation and attention, we thank you.
